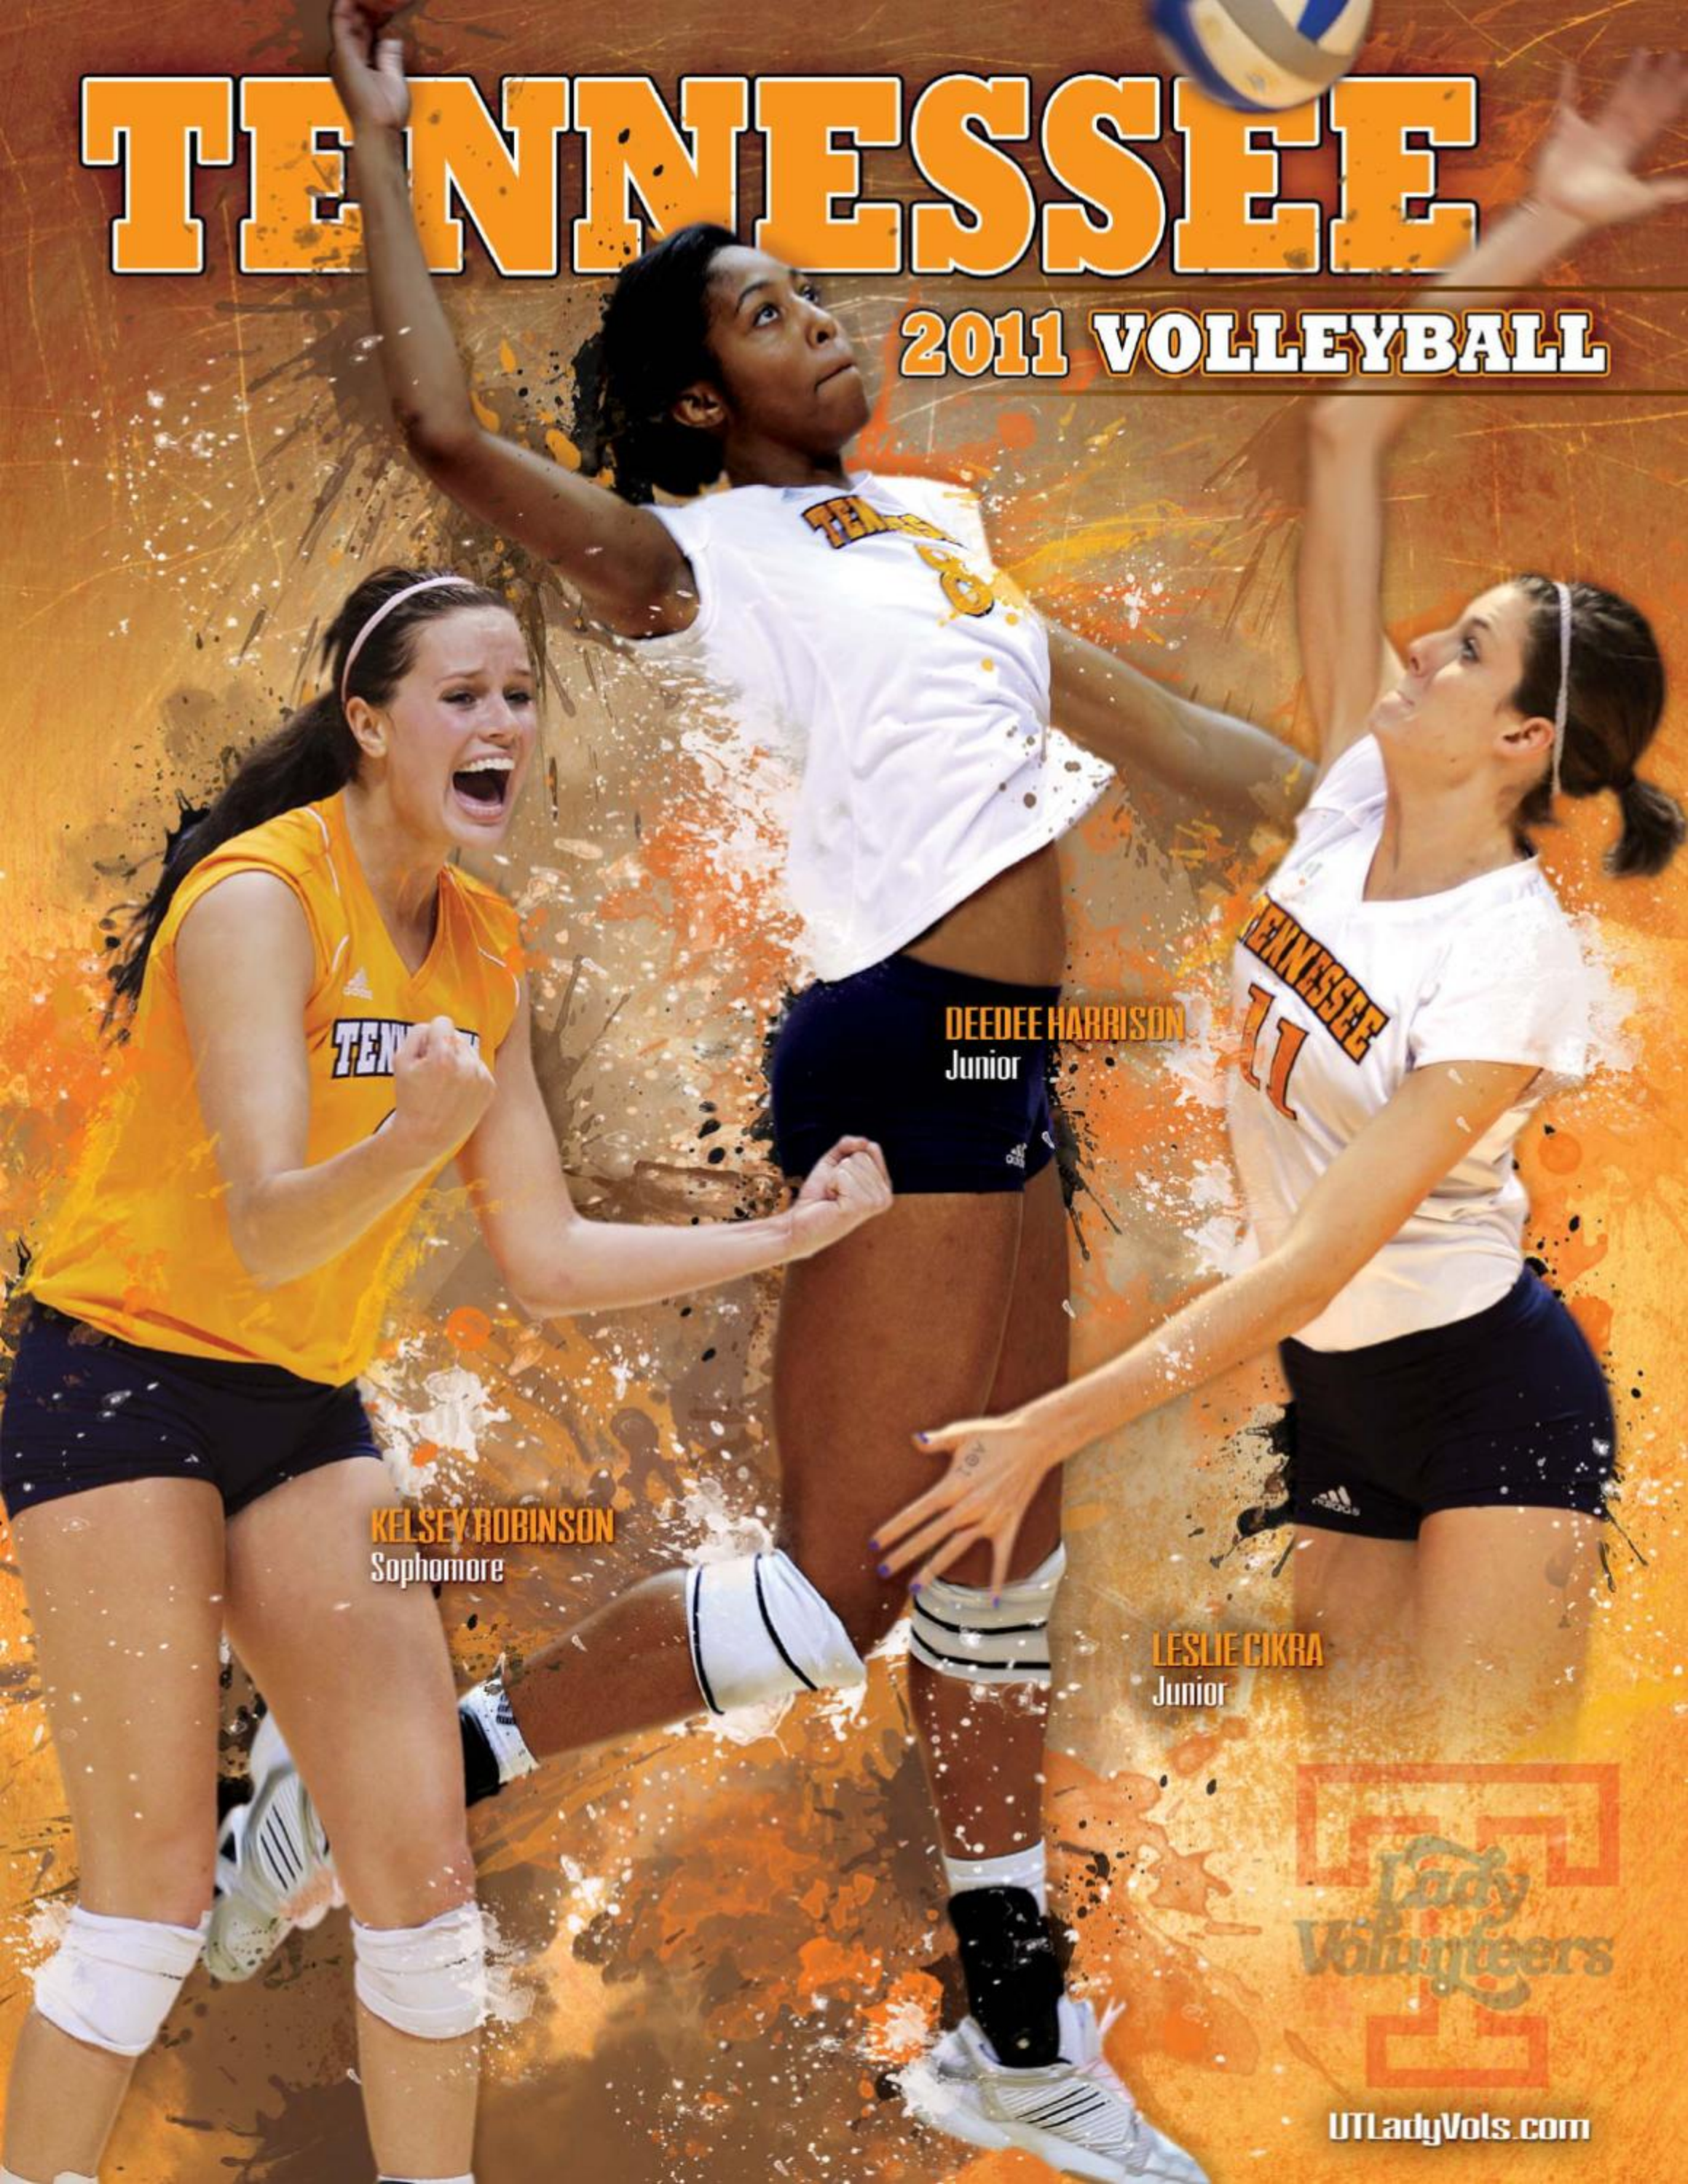
2011 VOLLEYBALL



U.S. WOMEN'S NATIONAL A2 PROGRAM

Lady Vols KAYLA JETER, LESLIE CIKRA and KELSEY ROBINSON were 3 of 36 players to be named to the U.S. Women's National A2 Program roster. Tennessee was only one of four schools with three members in the program.

The program took place in Dallas from May 23 through June 1 and included training and competition in the 2011 USA Volleyball Open National Championships in the Open Division. USA Volleyball considers the event as the sport's national championship.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for working media credentials should be directed to volleyball contact Amanda Pruitt. Those wishing to attend a match are asked to call the Media Relations Office to be placed on the pass list.

Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers or those individuals on special assignment. Because there are specifically designated areas for photographers, we ask that anyone shooting a Lady Vol volleyball match at Thompson-Boling Arena check with Amanda prior to the start of the contest.

RADIO

Thompson-Boling Arena is available for radio broadcasts through UT Telephone Services. In order to access these lines, those interested in broadcasting a particular match need to inform the UT Athletics Media Relations Office in writing at their earliest convenience and no later than three weeks prior to the contest. Radio stations also will need to contact UT Telephone Services at (865) 974-3121 to order a telephone line for use at the contest(s).

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Services provided include statistics generated from the StatCrew computer program. Match statistics will be handed to all attending members of the media and sports information personnel after every game. Following the conclusion of the match, final statistics will be faxed/emailed to the visiting sports information director's fax/email list. Results will also be emailed to the sports information contact of visiting teams at the conclusion of the match in lieu of a sports information representative traveling with his or her team. Arrangements should be made in advance for any additional services.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews will be available following the match after a 10-minute cooling-off period. Media wishing to interview the coaches or any players other than on game days are required to set up interviews with 24 hours notice through Amanda Pruitt in the UT Media Relations Office.

INTERVIEW WITH >>> COACH ROB PATRICK

Q: Could you tell us a little bit about your general outlook for the team this year?

A: We're very excited about the outlook. We started three freshmen and two sophomores last year. We have six returning players, and the people that are on our roster that didn't start, all got significant playing time.

We're very excited about that, and then we're very excited about the new players coming in. We've added depth to the program. We've added some physicality, height and athleticism. It's going to be our job to mix all the new players in with the returning players, and hopefully when we're done with that, we have an even better than last year after we had a very successful season.

Q: Could you talk a little more about the returning players?

A: Our middle hitter situation, we lost a great middle hitter for us, a starter for four years. So we're going to have to find some one to come in and replace Leah Hinkey who can give us a defensive presence at the net, which I think Stephanie Stoll and Shealyn Kolosky will be able to do. Their blocking is a little ahead of their offense, but they can attack all along the net—in front of the center or behind the center.

DeeDee Harrison is going to be entering her fourth year on the team and so she still has two years of eligibility left. So we're excited about her development over the past year and all the experience that she received starting for us last year.

Q: What's the mentality of the team?

A: First of all, we had a lot of freshman and first-time players play for us last year. Everything is new to them—the crowds, travelling and playing great teams. Now, after last year where they played about six or seven ranked teams, they feel comfortable now being able to match up with some of the best teams in the country.

We also had three young ladies who were invited to play and made the USA A2 team this summer. And they're playing 36 of the best collegiate athletes in the country. We're very fortunate to be one of only three schools in the country to have three players selected from one program.

They've received a tremendous amount of confidence by going in and realizing that they can play at the same level as the best players in the country. So we're very excited about that and what they brought back with them from that competition and practice.

2011 /// PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

WELCOME TO 2011

This weekend marks the start of the 2011 season for the Lady Vols, who are coming off a year in which they finished 25-7 and reached the second round of the NCAA Championships.

Rob Patrick, now in his 15th season as head coach of the Lady Vols, is just eight wins shy of his 300th in Knoxville. Tennessee has made seven NCAA appearances during that time.

WHO'S BACK?

Tennessee is returning three starters and a libero from last year's roster: juniors DeeDee Harrison and Leslie Cikra, sophomore Kelsey Robinson and sophomore libero Ellen Mullins.

Last year, Harrison was third on the team with 240 kills, averaging 2.11 kills per game.

Robinson was a SEC All-Freshman Team selection in her first season with the Lady Vols at outside hitter. She led the team in digs with 367 (3.60/game).

Additional returners include sophomore setter Kylann Scheidt, senior setter Kelsey Mahoney and sophomore outside hitter Carly Sahagian.

JETER OUT FOR SEASON

Senior leader Kayla Jeter will miss the entire 2011 season with a knee injury, associate athletics director for sports medicine Jenny Moshak reported.

Jeter suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in her left knee at team practice Aug. 19.

Moshak said surgery has not yet been scheduled, and Jeter is currently rehabilitating her knee in preparation for surgery. Recovery time is estimated between six and nine months.

Jeter enjoyed her best season as a junior in 2010, earning first-team All-SEC and AVCA All-America honorable mention honors. The Solon, Ohio, native ranked second on the squad with 340 kills (2.98/set) and led UT with 19 solo blocks.

STILL EARNING ACCOLADES

Jeter is highly regarded on both the conference and national scales. She was a Preseason All-SEC Selection and was also one of the 30 initial finalists for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award.

SEC COACHES' SURVEY SAYS

The Southeastern Conference coaches selected Tennessee to finish second in the Eastern Division, and they picked up two votes to win the SEC regular-season title. Florida got nine votes.

◢ SEC Preseason Coaches Poll

Eastern Division Team, Points	Western Division Team, Points
1. Florida, 12	1. LSU, 10
2. Tennessee, 19	2. Mississippi, 22
3. Kentucky, 26	3. Arkansas, 31
4. Georgia, 39	4. Auburn, 34
5. South Carolina, 44	5. Alabama, 48
	6. Mississippi State, 50

Tennessee won its last SEC title in 2004, claiming both the regular-season and now-defunct SEC Tournament trophies.

BACK IN THE RANKINGS

The Lady Vols open the season tied with Michigan for 24th nationally in the AVCA Coaches Poll, which was released Aug. 15.

When it comes to the national rankings, the Lady Vols have been on the national stage for quite some time. The team has now spent 19 consecutive polling periods ranked in the top 25, a streak that dates back to 2009.

A2 NATIONAL TEAM

Cikra, Jeter and Robinson received some high-level training during the summer when they earned positions in the U.S. Women's National A2 Program.

All three tried out and were among 36 collegiate players named to the roster. Tennessee was one of four schools with three members on the A2 team.

WHO'S NEW?

TIFFANY BAKER

With the departure of Nikki Fowler, the most decorated player in UT volleyball history, and honorable mention AVCA All-American selection Leah Hinkey, Tennessee certainly had positions to fill for 2010.

Fortunately, the Lady Vols are bringing in the eighth-ranked recruiting class in the country, including Tiffany Baker. The outside hitter/middle blocker from Carrolton, Texas, was ranked fourth nationally, the highest-ranked recruit in program history.

The six freshmen include:

- OH/MB Tiffany Baker
- MB Shealyn Kolosky
- DS Nikki Brice
- S Mary Pollmiller
- MB Mercedes Vaughn.
- MB Stephanie Stoll (who transferred from Washington)

<< NEW STAFF, TOO

New faces don't end with the arrival of the six freshmen. Outside of head coach Rob Patrick and volunteer assistant Jason Hames, the coaching staff is different.

Rob Patrick added two new assistant coaches in the offseason: Alan Edwards and Rachel Cooper. Edwards had previously served as head coach at Iona, and Cooper was an assistant at East Tennessee State.

The volleyball program also expanded its staff with the addition of a full-time director of operations. Jenna Dover, who just finished her playing career at UNC Asheville, accepted the position.

SCOUTING REPORT

HEAD COACH ROB PATRICK BREAKS DOWN THE 2011 ROSTER

14 /// KAYLA JETER

"We're saddened by the fact that Kayla will be out for the season, but this now allows some other players to step up and perform. I know with Kayla's work ethic that she will come back stronger and more motivated than ever to have a great year next season. We're excited to have Kayla back in our program for another year."

>> Bio on page 16

17 /// KELSEY MAHONEY

"She's going to bring a lot of experience to our setting position. We look for her to solidify the setting position."

>> Bio on page 18

24 /// JASMINE BROWN

"She's made huge improvements in her ball control. She's always been a great athlete on the court. We've counted on her the past few years, but now she's become really comfortable on the court."

11 /// LESLIE CIKRA

"She came into her own at the end of the year last year. She really has fit in well at the right-side hitter position. We expect huge things out of Leslie. She should be able to control the net on the right side and can nullify some of the bigger hitters in our conference."

8 /// DEEDEE HARRISON

"There's nothing that can replace the experience she received starting all the matches last year. She's grown physically; she's gotten stronger. She's somebody that will really gain the attention of our opponents—they're going to really have to watch her along the net."

10 /// ELLEN MULLINS

"She gained a lot of experience last year in the back row. She's coming in this year with an improved jump serve, confidence level, technique level and an improved strength level. Ellen has put herself in a position to be a much better player for us."

>> Bio on page 26

9 /// KELSEY ROBINSON

"She was probably the hardest worker in the offseason. She really needed to increase her physicality which she did. She's more athletic. She can get kills for us. Kelsey Robinson has put herself into position to be a factor in every point in the match."

>> Bio on page 28

35 /// CARLY SAHAGIAN

"You might not always notice her when you're playing, but when you finish and look at the stats, you see that's she's been an important contributor to the match. She can fill in at any position. She's probably our most consistent player because she can play any of the six positions."

>> Bio on page 30

4 /// KYLANN SCHEIDT

"We're very excited about Kylann's development. She really put in a tremendous amount of time this spring… She got a lot of experience as a starter last year. She put in the work not only in the weight room but also in the gym where she's going to be a consistent performer in an area that might not have been our strongest area last year."

>> Bio on page 32

7 /// TIFFANY BAKER

"She's just a great all-around player… She can get kills in the front row or the back row. Probably just walking in, she could be our best blocker. She's a definite net presence. In the back, she has good enough ball control to start passing immediately."

2 /// NIKKI BRICE

"She's someone who will push for starting time as libero and definitely as someone who comes off the bench to add a spark with a great serve. She has one of the best serves on our team. We're very excited about her development especially this spring."

>> Bio on page 35

9 /// SHEALYN KOLOSKY

"She's a physical specimen and somebody that we're very excited about as she develops over her four years. She comes in with a great net presence. She has a tremendous arm swing. She'll vie for playing time in the middle."

15 /// MARY POLLMILLER

"She's really going to help us improve in what was our weakest position last year: setter. She has a tremendous amount of potential. We look to Mary to either start or push for playing time for us."

>> Bio on page 37

3 /// STEPHANIE STOLL

"She brings experience we need in the middle. As a transfer, she was able to train at the collegiate level last year so she's a strong, athletic player who is going to look to start for us."

>> Bio on page 38

30 /// MERCEDES VAUGHN

"She hasn't been playing the game for a very long time but she's an elite athlete and we expect her to come along very quickly with the training she can get here in the gym. She's very similar to DeeDee when DeeDee came in. She brings a tremendous amount of athleticism to our gym this year."

Two-time National Coach of the Year Rob Patrick has developed a tradition of excellence since coming to Tennessee 14 years ago. Following his arrival at Rocky Top, Patrick has become one of the nation's top coaches and helped the Lady Vols attain levels of success never before reached in Knoxville, as evidenced by NCAA Tournament berths in five of the last six years, including a run to the Final Four in 2005.

UT under Patrick has compiled eight 20-win seasons in the last 11 years, including seven of the last nine and the current stretch of three in a row. Prior to Patrick's arrival at UT in 1997, the Lady Vols last recorded a 20-win season in 1988. His nine-year stretch of winning seasons from 1998-2006 marked the longest-such run in program history, topping the previous high of seven set from 1978-84.

The Big Orange record in SEC play over the last three seasons is 46-14 (.767), Patrick's best three-year run at Tennessee. More impressively, UT owns six NCAA Tournament appearances in the past seven seasons, including the historic national semifinal berth in 2005 and a round of 16 appearance in 2004.

Following a rebuilding season in 2007, the Lady Vols posted the third-largest turnaround in Division I in 2008. Under Patrick's direction, UT doubled its win total from 11 to 22 and returned to the NCAA Tournament after a one-year absence. For his efforts, Patrick was named the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) South Region Coach of the Year, as well as the Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, for the second time in his career.

During his 14-year tenure at Rocky Top, Patrick has compiled an impressive 292-150 (.661) record, and became the program's all-time winningest coach with a 3-0 victory over Auburn on Oct. 3, 2008. Patrick's coaching record in SEC play is 144-90 (.615).

Under Patrick's guidance, 10 different student-athletes have been named All-Americans on a total of 18 occasions, including Nikki Fowler who claimed third-team honors from the AVCA in 2010. Kayla Jeter and Leah Hinkey were honorable mention selections last season as well.

In 2005, four Lady Vols earned national distinction for their achievements on the court. A pair of seniors, middle blocker Kristen Andre and libero Amy Morris, both claimed All-America status from Vball Magazine, being named to the first and third teams, respectively, while fellow classmate setter Julie Knytych, sophomore outside hitter Stoyanova (both honorable mention) and Andre (second team) also earned AVCA All-America status.

Those awards came on the heels of the program's first ever appearance in the NCAA national semifinals and highest year-end ranking in school history. During that memorable year, the Lady Vols fought past some early season obstacles and compiled a 25-9 overall record, finishing sixth in the nation. For his efforts, Patrick was named the 2005 NCAA National Coach of the Year by VBall Magazine.

In 2004, Tennessee put together an equally impressive season by winning 32 matches against just three defeats.

The Lady Vols accomplished a number of goals in 2004, including winning an SEC regular-season title for the first time in school history, defeating Florida, 3-2, on the final day of the season to tie the Gators with identical 15-1 marks. Just a mere seven days later, the Orange and White made it two titles in two weeks, topping UF, once again by a 3-2 score, in the SEC Tournament championship match.

A couple of weeks following that accomplishment, the Big Orange won a pair of NCAA Tournament matches for the initial time in Tennessee annals and advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time in 20 years.

Based on the team's fast rise to prominence, Patrick was awarded both the AVCA South Region and the SEC Coach of the Year awards, as well as CVU.com National Coach of the Year honors. He was also a finalist for the AVCA National Coach of the Year award.

Under his tutelage that season, four Lady Vols earned All-America honors, including juniors Knytych (third team), Morris, Andre and senior outside hitter Michelle Piantadosi (honorable mention).

In addition to the 10 All-Americans that he has coached, 34 players under Patrick's guidance have been selected to All-SEC teams in the past 14 seasons, including the 2004 SEC Defensive Player of the Year Morris, 2007 SEC Freshman of the Year Fowler and 2009 Libero of the Year Goldman.

The success of the Tennessee volleyball program is not limited to on-the-court action. Fifty-one UT volleyball student-athletes have earned a spot on an Academic All-SEC list a total of 99 times during Patrick's tenure.

Another testament to Patrick's ability is the fact he was chosen head coach for the USA/Bring It Promotions u20 Development Team at the European Global Games in Croatia in 2007 and 2008. He was joined by Lady Vols Mindy Flynn and Leah Hinkey at the 2007 competition, when the team placed third.

Patrick joined the UT program in July 1997 after spending the previous three seasons as an assistant coach with national powerhouse Stanford. From 1994-96, he helped lead the Cardinal to a combined 92-6 record and two NCAA championships. During that stint, Stanford never lost a home match, participated in a trio of NCAA national semifinals and won three consecutive Pac-10 titles.

His expertise at Stanford did not go unnoticed by the sport's national governing bodies. He was selected by USA Volleyball as one of five coaches to evaluate and choose players for the Junior National Team at tryouts held throughout the country.

He also worked with USA Volleyball in assessing the players who were picked for the 1996 and 1997 Junior National Teams. Additionally, he was chosen to coach at the USA Volleyball 14-and-under Junior Development camp in San Jose, California.

As a club coach, Patrick was active with two highly-successful programs. From 1994-96, he was head coach of the top 16-and-under age team for the Griffin Volleyball Club in San Jose. Prior to that, he was head coach of the 17-and-under squad and assistant coach for the 18-and-under team from 1987-94 with the South Bay Volleyball Club in Manhattan Beach, Calif.

As a competitor, Patrick was a standout indoors and on the beach circuit. He played collegiately at Miami (Ohio) and remained active in tournament competition for years. He twice earned U.S. Volleyball Association All-America distinction and owned a AAA beach rating.

Originally from Cleveland, Ohio, Patrick also played football in college. He served as president of the volleyball club during his last two years at MU and received his bachelor's degree in business, with emphasis in accounting, in 1983.

Rob and his wife Julie, an assistant volleyball coach at Maryville College, were married in April 2008 and reside in Knoxville. Their daughter, Kensington Grace, was born in April.

QUICK QUOTES

Q: What is your coaching philosophy?
A: "The goal of our program is to develop young adults and teach them life skills through academic and athletic pursuits at the University of Tennessee. On the court, we strive to recruit the best volleyball athletes and then put them in positions that maximize the skills that they bring to our team."

Q: What is your favorite memory from your time as UT Volleyball Coach?
A: "Beating Florida on their home court to win the 2004 SEC Championship and break their NCAA-record winning streak is my favorite memory. Winning that match in five games and then going back down to Gainesville and beating them again in the SEC Tournament Championship the next week gave me a feeling of accomplishment that all our hard work had been worth the effort."

Q: What do you like most about coaching?
A: "The relationships that are forged with the players and their families. To be able to watch an individual progressively increase their skill level as a player and know that I had an influence on their life is very satisfying to me."

Q: What are some things that would surprise people about you?
A: "Most people are surprised by the variety of things that I have done. I played football as well as men's club volleyball in college. I went on a week-long cattle drive in 2005. I have gone sky diving, scuba diving and skiing at three different Olympic venues. In 1982, I took a five-week trip around the United States, during which I visited 38 states. I have also traveled to 16 different countries in Europe including Bulgaria, Croatia, Hungary, Italy, Poland, Romania, Slovenia and the Czech Republic."

ASSISTANT COACHES & STAFF

ASSISTANT COACH

ALAN EDWARDS

QUICK FACTS

Assistant Coach: Tennessee (2011-present)
Head Coach: Iona, 2006-10
- Coached Allison Neiters, 5th in NCAA history with 2,682 digs

Assistant Coach: Southeastern Louisiana, 2005
Head Coach: Mercer, 2000-04
- Earned conference tourney berth for first time since 1996

Former Iona head coach Alan Edwards is in his first season as Tennessee assistant coach and recruiting coordinator.

"I was very excited about adding Alan to our coaching staff," UT head coach Rob Patrick said. "He brings a wealth of volleyball experience, both as a head coach and assistant coach from a number of Division-I programs, and is someone who I feel will be able to assimilate himself into our team very quickly."

Edwards was head coach at Iona the past five seasons, leading the Gaels to a 75-79 overall record and four appearances in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference championships.

"When Rob called and asked if I wanted to join his coaching staff, it was a no-brainer for me," Edwards said. "I've known Rob for more than 10 years and have the utmost respect for what he has accomplished here at Tennessee."

During his time at Iona, Edwards mentored one of the top defensive players in NCAA history in Allison Neiters. She was named the 2007 and 2008 MAAC Defensive Player of the Year, and 2009 MAAC Libero of the Year, as well as the league's Defensive Player of the Week 17 times during her career.

Edwards also coached three-time All-MAAC and 1,000+ kill club member Sarah Wiener along with the 2009 MAAC Rookie of the Year Rachelle Wilson.

Academically, the Gaels under Edwards performed exceptionally well, with more than three-fourths of his eligible student-athletes earning MAAC All-Academic or Academic Honor Roll distinction.

Edwards came to Iona after spending the 2005 season as an assistant at Southeastern Louisiana. His previous coaching experiences include stints as an assistant at Wyoming and as head coach at Mercer.

In his only season at Wyoming, Edwards served as the Cowgirls' recruiting coordinator. His 2005 class was given a High Honorable Mention award by PrepVolleyball.com, ranking the school among the Top 50 recruiting classes in the country.

Prior to his tenure at Wyoming, Edwards spent four seasons as head coach at Mercer. He posted a four-year record of 52-73 and guided the Bears to the Atlantic Sun Conference tournament for the first time since 1996. Edwards led Mercer to its most wins ever in conference play in 2003, going 7-3 and earning the No. 4 seed at the A-Sun Championship. He took over the Mercer volleyball program in 2000 after the Bears had gone a combined 6-48 in the two years prior to his arrival.

A native of Brevard, NC, Edwards spent one season as an assistant at Troy State before accepting the Mercer position. Prior to his stint at TSU, the Western Carolina graduate spent the previous 10 seasons at the high school and club level. He guided Brevard High School to three consecutive state playoff appearances after inheriting a team that finished 4-16 the year before he arrived.

While in the high school ranks, Edwards was instrumental in bringing club volleyball to the Western North Carolina area. He worked with the Biltmore Volleyball club team from 1993-99.

RACHEL COOPER

QUICK FACTS

As a Coach...
- Assistant Coach: Tennessee, 2011-present
- Assistant Coach: ETSU, 2008-10
- Graduate Assistant: ETSU, 2007-08

Playing Career...
Four-year letter winner at Mississippi State (2002-2006): team MVP, two-year captain, SEC Honor Roll

Former Mississippi State standout Rachel Cooper returned to the Southeastern Conference – this time as a staff member – when she joined the Lady Vols program as an assistant coach in May.

Cooper has spent the past three seasons as an assistant coach at East Tennessee State after two years as a graduate assistant with the Buccaneers, where she assisted in recruiting and coordinated team travel and community service.

"The thing that most impresses me about Rachel is her work ethic," Patrick said. "I've gotten to know her in recent years when she has come to work our camps and I am very excited that we have been able to add her to our coaching staff. She has experience in recruiting and understands the day-to-day responsibilities involved with running a high-level volleyball program.

"Rachel was also an outstanding player in the SEC and knows exactly what it takes to be successful at the highest level in our conference. Her personality is very engaging and inviting, and I expect that our players will be able to easily relate to her."

A Roscoe, Ill., native, Cooper was a four-year letter winner and starting outside hitter for the Mississippi State Bulldogs.

A two-year captain and team Most Valuable Player, Cooper was also the first Bulldog athlete ever named SEC Player of the Week. She finished her career third all-time in kills with 1,405.

"I'm really excited about being back in the SEC and competing on a national level," Cooper said. "The things I have seen Rob do are very exciting and I know that he has the program ready to make a run at another Final Four. I know I can learn a lot from both him and am just thankful to be able to be a part of the University of Tennessee and this volleyball program."

A standout academically as well as athletically, Cooper was an MSU Bulldog and SEC Honor Roll selection. She was also named to both the President's and Dean's list and was nominated to the CoSIDA Academic All-America Team. Cooper was also a member of the Good Works Team in recognition of her community service.

Cooper graduated Magna Cum Laude from Mississippi State in 2006 with a Bachelor of Science in elementary education. She received her Masters of Arts degree in sport management from ETSU in May 2008.

JENNA DOVER
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Jenna Dover joined Tennessee in the summer of 2011 as the first full-time director of operations in program history. The Knoxville native returned home after playing for four seasons at UNC Asheville as a right-side hitter and was part of the Bulldogs' Big South Conference title in 2009.

When it comes to volleyball instruction, she worked with the Biltmore Volleyball Academy in Asheville, N.C.

While at UNC Asheville, she earned an undergraduate degree in marketing in May 2011, graduating with a distinction in management and being named an undergraduate research scholar. She aspires to one day be an athletics director.

JASON HAMES
VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

In his third season with the Lady Vols, Jason Hames serves as the volunteer assistant coach. His primary responsibilities include assisting with the facilitation of practice, editing game video and compiling statistics.

Hames was an assistant coach at Maryville College from 2004-06, where he helped guide the Scots to three Great South Athletic Conference championships and an NCAA appearance in 2006. Since then, Hames has spent the last three years as the associate director and coach of the 17-1 team for Smoky Mountain Juniors Club. He is now the Director of the K2 volleyball club in Knoxville. Jason and his wife Chris reside in Maryville with their three children, Nicklin, Kayleigh, and Eli.

STEPHANIE SCHWERTNER
ATHLETIC TRAINING GRAD. ASSISTANT

Stephanie Schwertner is in her second year as a graduate assistant with the Lady Vols Athletic Training Department.

Schwertner is a 2009 graduate of Ashland in Ohio, where she earned her bachelor's degree in athletic training. At Ashland, she worked with women's soccer, softball, wrestling, football, men's basketball, men's and women's track and field, men's and women's swimming and diving and at a local high school.

After graduation, she held an internship position at the United States Naval Academy where she worked with the football and men's lacrosse teams. Stephanie is currently pursuing a master's degree in sport psychology at UT.

TENNESSEE ADMINISTRATION

INTERIM VICE CHANCELLOR & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JOAN CRONAN

Triumphant collegiate programs are able to distinguish themselves from their counterparts because of superiority on the field of competition and within the classroom.

The integrity and proactive guidance of the person at the helm is what has provided the edge to the University of Tennessee women's athletics department for almost three decades.

So it comes as no surprise that UT Chancellor Dr. Jimmy Cheek named Women's Athletics Director Joan Cronan as the interim Vice-Chancellor/Director of Athletics on June 9, 2011.

Under the vision and direction of Cronan, a heavily-requested speaker on leadership and motivation on the national and local levels, the University of Tennessee Lady Vols have garnered a reputation as one of the most visible and respected programs throughout the nation.

UT's success in both the athletic and academic realms speaks volumes to her decision-making and leadership ability, as demonstrated by her appointment to the 2010 NCAA Division I Leadership Council and selected as the president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) in 2008-09. Cronan is also a former president of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA).

Both organizations have also honored Cronan as well. She was selected by NACWAA to receive their 2005 Athletic Director of the Year award. In 2004, Cronan was honored by NACDA with their Southeast Region Athletic Director of the Year award. In 2009, Cronan was presented with the Women of Achievement Award: "Women Who Make a Difference" by the International Women's Forum and in 2011, the United States Sports Academy elected her as an Emeritus Member of its Board of Trustees.

Having completed her 28th year at Tennessee in 2010-11, Cronan's continued admiration by her peers and the community is well deserved because of her efforts in facilitating the operation of a first-class program, which has finished in the top two in the Southeastern Conference Women's All-Sports Award from The New York Times Regional Newspaper Group for six of the past seven years, including three first-place finishes. In three of the past six years, all 11 Lady Vol teams participated in postseason play. The UT women's athletics department achieved a seventh place finish in the 2007 Director's Cup -- Tennessee's highest finish ever.

Cronan joined UT from the College of Charleston in South Carolina, where she served as the athletics director for 10 years and was later inducted into that institution's hall of fame. Under Cronan, the school was selected as the No. 1 women's athletics program in the country in 1980 by the American Women's Sports Foundation.

Closer to home, Cronan is a past president of the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, is active on the boards of First Tennessee Bank and the YMCA, and has served as vice chair of the Leadership Knoxville board. She also works closely with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Athletes in Action, having served as a board member for the local FCA chapter and as a national trustee. In 2003, Cronan was inducted into the FCA Hall of Champions. Additionally, she finds time to be a deacon at Central Baptist Church-Bearden.

In 1998, Cronan's earned her accord from the Knoxville Sports Hall of Fame, as she was named its Administrator of the Year. Other honors include: chairing the 1991 Knoxville area United Way Fund Drive, serving as president of the Executive Women's Association, receiving the 1994 Toastmaster's International Communication and Leadership Award and the 1994 AOPi Citizen of the Year Award. In March of 1987, the Women's Basketball Coaches Association honored her hard work, dedication and success by presenting her with its leadership award. She also won the 1995 regional award for the National Association of Collegiate Women's Athletic Administrators.

Cronan has served on the NCAA's Executive Committee, Championship Cabinet, Management Council, as well as the NCAA's Council, and is a member of the NCAA Leadership Committee.

As a former coach, Cronan served a two-year stint at Tennessee from 1968 to 1970. In 1969, she led the women's basketball team to an alternate berth in the first-ever National Invitational Collegiate Basketball Tournament. While at Charleston, she continued her success, not only as a basketball coach but in tennis as well. In 1981, she gave up coaching to devote her full-time attention to her duties as teacher and athletics director.

A graduate of LSU, Cronan earned her B.S. in 1966 and her M.S. in 1968, both in physical education. She was a fall 1995 inductee into LSU's Alumni Hall of Distinction. Currently an avid golfer and tennis player, Cronan was ranked as high as second in the South in doubles and is a former state and Southern doubles champion.

Cronan makes her home in Gettysvue. She and her late husband Tom, who passed away on Aug. 18, 2006, after a valiant battle with pancreatic cancer, have two daughters; Kristi (Mrs. Rhett Benner) and Stacey (Mrs. Kent Bristow), both 1994 graduates of UT; three grandsons, Chase Thomas and Reed Kent Bristow, and Quinn Leighton Benner; and two granddaughters, Reese Lauren Benner and Larkin Ann Bristow.

UT KNOXVILLE CHANCELLOR

DR. JIMMY CHEEK

Dr. Jimmy G. Cheek became the seventh chancellor of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, on Feb. 1, 2009.

Through his leadership, UT is focused on improving the student's educational experience, enhancing faculty research and scholarship as well as outreach and service. A first-generation college student, Dr. Cheek has set in motion several initiatives to broaden UT Knoxville's diversity and student access to the university.

As the state's flagship research campus, UT Knoxville is currently ranked as a Top 50 public institution. In early 2010, the campus launched its quest to become one of the Top 25 research universities in the nation.

Dr. Cheek chairs the Board of the International Fertilizer Development Center Advisory Committee, a new global research effort to develop and commercialize clean, cost-effective and renewable fertilizers for the developing world. He is on the Presidential Advisory Committee on Energy for the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities. He is also a member of the 2011 Leadership Knoxville class and serves on the UT-Battelle Board of Governors, the UT Health Sciences Center Board of Directors, the Tennessee Higher Education Commission Master Plan Steering Committee and the UT Athletics Board of Directors.

Prior to his UT appointment, Dr. Cheek was a faculty member and an administrator at the University of Florida for 34 years, last serving as senior vice president of agricultural and natural resources.

While at Florida, he received the President's Medallion and Student Body Resolution 2009-104 for dedicated and loyal service to the university and outstanding service to students, respectively, and the Morton Wolfson Faculty Award for outstanding contributions to the quality of student life. He was named to the Academy of Teaching Excellence in 2008, a Fellow of the American Association for Agricultural Education in 2005, and a Fellow of the North American Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture in 1998. His research has focused on the influence of experiential learning on student achievement and educational accountability. Dr. Cheek earned his bachelor's degree with high honors and his doctorate from Texas A&M University. He received his master's degree from Lamar University. A native of Texas, he is married to Ileen, and they have two children and two grandchildren.

KAYLA JETER

5-11 /// Outside Hitter

Solon, Ohio (Solon H.S.)

INTERVIEW BY BRIAN RICE

Q: Favorite memory in sports?

A: Beating Kentucky my sophomore year. They were supposed to win the SEC title, we went in there and painted the place orange. They had confetti and hats ready, ready to win the title and we went in there and flipped the place and completely turned it around.

Q: Favorite spot on campus?

A: It would have to be the weight room sadly. That's where I've made my biggest strides and some of my greatest accomplishments off-the-court. Just to see yourself grow from a freshman to a senior, it's really amazing how much hard work can really turn out and how you can end up.

Q: Biggest prankster on the team?

A: That would have to be Kelsey Robinson. She is always out there doing something crazy and is catching people completely off guard.

Q: Most likely to become president?

A: Probably Jasmine Brown. She's really focused in school and really on top of things. She's a great speaker and great motivator overall.

Q: How did you pick your number?

A: I picked my number because I was actually No. 10 in high school, but Chloe Goldman was No. 10. I've always liked the No. 4, so I put them together to make 14.

Q: Athlete you admire?

A: Everyone always says Michael Jordan, but I actually had a chance to meet him before I came to college. He's just a laid-back guy and you see how all the hard work—just coming into the gym, trying new things, going to baseball—he was finding his niche and sticking with it. He always wanted to be the best.

Q: Something people don't know about you?

A: I had chicken pox two seasons ago. Yeah, I had chicken pox as a 19 year-old. That was kind of interesting to deal with.

Q: What about your athletic family family?

A: DeeDee and I come from that same athletic background. Both of our dads played in the NFL and that's really pushed me to be involved in sports. Most people get involved because they see a player on TV or they wanted to a part of something, but it just runs through my blood. I've always wanted to be a part of sports whether it be volleyball or kickball or softball. I've just really wanted to be active all the time.

Q: Could you talk about overcoming shortness on the court?

A: That was the biggest thing coming into college. Being the shortest hitter on the team and really within the volleyball world was really hard. In high school, I played middle. So to transition, I had to pick up different parts of my game. I picked up different shots and different things to really make me stand out as a 5-11 outside hitter. I really needed to work on my jumping and strength so I can jump as high as I can.

Q: What about the coaching staff?

A: Playing for Coach Patrick is great. He cares about you off the court. If you ever have any problems with school or anything, he's always there for you to talk to. He only wants what's best for you. People always notice how energized he is and clipboards go everywhere when he's coaching, but he just wants to win so badly. You can't take that for granted and you can't take that personally when it's all about winning.

KELSEY MAHONEY

5-10 /// Setter

Fort Worth, Texas (Keller-Central H.S.)

INTERVIEW BY JOHN PAINTER

Q: What made you choose Tennessee?

A: I just liked the program, the school and all the tradition. I liked that they had separate athletics departments and just the spirit behind Tennessee.

Q: What's the coolest thing about being a UT student-athlete?

A: Eating in Gibbs Hall. Lunch is awesome because they always have great food. You can't make those same meals for yourself all the time so it's nice to have somebody else making you lunch. And you see everybody who's a part of Tennessee athletics, including coaches like Pat Summitt.

Q: What was your biggest adjustment to the college game?

A: Probably just the speed of the game and the high level all the time. It never fluctuates – you have to be on your game every day."

Q: What's a Fort Worth secret people in Tennessee don't know about?

A: We have really good Mexican food; that's what I miss about it. I miss the Texas style and feel of it. I miss the stockyards. And I love Texas country music so much better than mainstream, but I could be biased.

Q: Talk about the changes for this season.

A: This year is totally different, especially for any returning player. We have two new people on the coaching staff, a new director of operations, all new managers – so it's different.

The energy in the gym is great. We're not really missing a beat, so I'm excited for it. It's going to be a new experience.

Q: What are you expecting for the team this season?

A: We have really high expectations for ourselves and we want to make a good run into the tournament, make it to the final four, win SEC and all that. We lost some really good players but we also have gained good talent as well."

Q: Do you have any personal goals?

A: I'm working my way from a back injury to be able to practice all the time and being able to go full-speed. I'm competing for a starting spot and pushing my teammates to be better. I've not been injured before, so now I've got to learn to fight back with my body.

It's a new experience, but the training staff has been helping me a lot and doing a great job.

JASMINE BROWN

5-8 /// Defensive Specialist & Setter

Chattanooga, Tenn. (Girls Preparatory School)

INTERVIEW BY MEGAN SPEDDEN

Q: Being from Chattanooga, did you always know you wanted to come to Tennessee?

A: No. Actually I didn't really want to come here because everyone at my school came here. I went to [Girls Preparatory School] and I was going to run track somewhere else, but then I talked to one of the coaches really late my senior year. Then I got here and I love it! I really like it here.

Q: What events did you run in track?

A: 300 hurdles, triple jump, pentathlon, and long jump.

Q: Do you miss track at all?

A: I prefer volleyball, but I miss the triple jump.

Q: What has been your favorite UT memory so far in your career?

A: I think it was my freshman year when we beat Kentucky at home. We were down 14-10 and Kiley Marshall served us like six points in a row and we won.

Q: What do you plan to do after college?

A: [I'm studying] social work with a minor in business. I kind of want to ministry work -- like inner-city ministry so I figured I would start with social work. I don't really want to be in the government part of it, but hopefully I can do ministry.

Q: What are your aspirations on the court?

A: Of course my goal in my position is to be the libero. Every day in practice I am just trying to work on getting better with my passing. This year I just want to be a more consistent passer.

Q: How did you choose your number?

A: It's not Kobe Bryant – that's not why I have 24. It was really just the first number that came into my head. It doesn't mean anything to me. Well, now it does, but before it didn't.

Q: Do you have any nicknames?

A: I have Jazzy, Jazz, Jazzy-Face, J.B., J-Bizzle, Downtown Jasmine Brown – the list goes on.

Q: What's your favorite quote from Coach?

A: Un-believable. He says it a lot – no matter what.

Q: Are you looking forward to any particular contest or opponent this year?

A: I am looking forward to beating Florida and LSU – whooping them – and winning the SEC Championship. And I'm looking forward to being a national champion.

INTERVIEW BY BRIAN RICE

Q: Favorite spot on campus?
A: My bed. If I'm not playing, in class or eating, I'm probably sleeping.

Q: Funniest Teammate?
A: Without question, Kelsey Robinson.

Q: Athlete you admire?
A: Keri Walsh, she's someone I've always looked up to in volleyball.

Q: How'd you pick No. 11?
A: I was No. 7 all through high school and No. 17. When I was a freshman in high school, I looked up to this girl who was a middle hitter. She was a senior and I was a freshman so when she graduated I took over the number and it has just stuck since then.

Q: Expectations for the season:
A: I have really high expectations for this season. I came here to wina national championship and do something that no team has done before here. We're here to get a ring.

Q: Tell us a little about Coach Patrick:
A: He's been really awesome to have. He's brought me a long way. He has a great attention to detail and has really honed in my game on things I've needed to focus on since I've gotten here.

Q: What's it like being a student-athlete at Tennessee?
A: It's indescribable. I'm from Ohio and I was like, "Tennessee, what's that?" I got on the football field. The pride of the school and everything that comes with it, it's hard to describe. It's really awesome.

Every time I put this uniform on my chest, I get chills every time. It's something I'll have with me forever.

INTERVIEW BY BRIAN RICE

Q: Favorite memory at Tennessee?

A: Beating Florida, that was amazing because they came in thinking they were going to win. It made us feel better about ourselves and we went on a winning streak after that.

Q: Favorite memory in sports overall?

A: My favorite memory would have to be when my high school basketball team beat our rival, Smyrna. It was the best game of my life. I can't even explain how I felt at the end of that game. We always played them, and they always beat us to get to state. We finally beat them. We finally got past them. It was amazing. Me and my sister bonded the most at that game. It was amazing.

Q: Favorite spot on campus?

A: Steps (Amphitheater) in Humanities Plaza. I can take naps there, it's a great place to sit and relax between classes between classes or practice.

Q: Funniest teammate?

A: Kelsey Robinson. She's funny in a lot of different ways. The things she does are just funny. She has just an amazing personality; anyone around her would just love her.

Q: Teammate most likely to be president?

A: Jasmine Brown. She's a very organized plan, plan, plan kind of person.

Q: How did you pick your number?

A: I picked number eight because I am the eighth of 12 kids in my family. It represents me and it's personal, so I was lucky number eight had graduated when I came in.

Q: Athlete you admire:

A: My father. He taught us the ways and things he did when he was playing football in college and professionally. I admire him and all the things he taught me and the example he showed of how you can be successful in sports and still be an amazing person to other people.

Q: Something no one knows about you?

A: I'm afraid of the dark. I still have a nightlight at 21 years old.

Q: Talk a little about your athletic background:

A: It teaches you to live up to a higher expectation and to expect more of yourself. That's why my brother (David, who played 4 seasons in the NBA) has made it so far. He wanted to do things like quit and play football or just hang out and my dad wouldn't let him.

Seeing the conversations between those two was like my turning point. I realized I have to make it here; I have to make it to college and do something more with myself because I know my father isn't going to let me down. It kind of puts a fear in the back of your mind, but it makes you work hard no matter what you're doing, especially academics.

Q: What's it like having your sister (Isabelle) at UT on the Lady Vol basketball team?

A: I love having her here. She's my little sister. I'm always going to love her and love having her around. If you know her, she's a funny and loving person.

The best advice I gave her was to not let the freshman experience overwhelm you. She's the kind of person that would freak out because it all comes at you at once. So I told her not to let it overwhelm her and if you ever need anything, let me know because I can help you out. We had a great moving-in experience.

ELLEN MULLINS

INTERVIEW BY JOHN PAINTER

Q: Talk about your athletic family.

A: My mom played basketball in high school and was a great player. That's probably where we get our athletic talent from. But don't tell my dad; he'd probably get mad at me! We played basketball too, but volleyball is just what we ended up with. It's five girls and we all play volleyball, so it's fun.

Q: How are your games different in your family?

A: I'm the shortest one. My little sister plays everywhere; she's a hitter and a setter. Ann and I are both defense, but I've played probably every position before I got here. But if we had one more person we could make a good team.

Q: What made you choose Tennessee?

A: It's always been my dream to come. I like it here a lot. It's far enough away from home that I can escape. Plus, it's cool to play for your home-state university. I like that.

Q: Did you know any of your teammates before arriving at UT?

A: I knew all my freshmen teammates coming in – Kylann (Scheidt), Kelsey (Robinson) and Carly (Sahagian) – we had met before. I knew DeeDee Harrison, she's from Nashville too. And I played against Jasmine Brown in high school; we were rivals.

Q: What's the coolest thing about attending UT?

A: The atmosphere. There's so much pride in the Orange and White. It's a huge campus and being an athlete does make it fun. You definitely get the hype and the talk and stuff, and it's nice. But we also have to be responsible.

Q: What are the adjustments to the college game?

A: The level is definitely higher. You have to get used to the speed of the game – that was probably the most difficult thing. Meshing with your team was another big thing at the beginning. Once I got comfortable, it was easier for me to excel, step out of the box and really use my talent on the court.

Q: Was there a moment last season when you felt you were making those adjustments?

A: It was gradual in the beginning. I just locked in and focused, and kept going in early for practice and working really hard to get on the court.

Q: Do you have any role models?

A: I love to follow my sister Ann. She played here and that's a neat thing with the ties. She's taught me pretty much all I know and coached me on club teams in high school. She's my role model and it's still fun to see her play.

Q: Did you go anywhere fun this summer?

A: Yeah, I went to the beach with my family, to Perdido Key in Florida, around Pensacola. And then we were here training. We were back here in June training and getting ready for our season this year.

Q: What are you expecting for the team this season?

A: We're expecting to go all the way. We all want to win a national championship and an SEC championship. It hasn't happened since 2004-05 and it's time to bring the banners and the rings back to the volleyball world. I'm excited.

KELSEY ROBINSON

6-2 /// Outside Hitter

Bartlett, Ill. (Wheaton-St. Francis H.S.)

INTERVIEW BY JOSH PATE

Q: Your major is broadcast journalism. If you were interviewing yourself, what is the first question you would ask?

A: That's hard. I would probably say, 'What brought you to Tennessee?' I'm from Chicago and grew up with the Big Ten. Most people ask why I would pick the SEC because it's such a different lifestyle than where I'm from. So that would be the first question.

Q: So ... What brought you to Tennessee?

A: I really fell in love with the family atmosphere here. Everyone is really into the sports, no matter what you play – volleyball, soccer, football. It's fan-based, and everybody loves it. You go all over the state and people see your Tennessee gear and are so excited, saying, 'Oh my gosh, you play for Tennessee!' The support here is great.

Q: Is the support you receive as a student-athlete at Tennessee really that much different from where you grew up?

A: In Chicago, the Bears, Blackhawks and Bulls – the professional sports – are really big. The University of Illinois is there, but it's different.

Q: Growing up in the Chicago suburbs, when you think of home, what comes to mind?

A: Home for me wasn't really in Bartlett (Ill.) because I went to high school in Wheaton, played volleyball in Naperville, and then played basketball in the city. So growing up I was all over the place. But whenever I go home, it's great. I love the city. I love going to big games, wintertime at the park, shopping, stuff like that. As much as I hate the cold, I love going home. My favorite part of the city is Belmont. It's not part of the big area, but it's smaller and has great shopping that nobody knows about.

Q: You have mentioned you really like photography. Are you able to enjoy it as much while juggling school and volleyball?

A: I haven't had that much time to do it, but I like the arts and photography. I'm happy when I get the chance to do it. I do it for fun. I do the friends photos, but I really like the arts and nature photos. I find it really peaceful.

Q: What has been the most emotional moment – good or bad – on the volleyball court?

A: My most emotional moment was when my high school team lost to another team in the state finals. It was my senior year so obviously that was one of the most crushing defeats. But losing that game and the feeling that I had made me never want to lose again. That's what brought me here: pressing myself harder and harder. I never want to feel that again. Although defeat is bad, and everybody says, 'Don't lose,' sometimes failure can teach you things.

Q: What did you learn in your first year of college that you will never forget?

A: I think every year you can take something, whether it's being a freshman in college or being a senior in high school. You take something with you every year. The biggest thing I took last year is you have to work hard every single moment. There is no play where you can take off. That gave me a ton of determination to go hard in the spring and work hard in the summer to develop myself as a player even more than I already have. So last year I learned that not one play can be taken off. You have to work hard every single play.

INTERVIEW BY MEGAN SPEDDEN

Q: What are you studying?

A: I'm majoring in hotel and tourism management – I just chose my major last semester. I only took one class in it but I really liked it. I would like to plan events, big events. I might like to be a wedding planner or even run a hotel one day.

Q: What is your greatest memory on the court:

A: Last year I played in about eight games when Kelsey Robinson was hurt, so getting to play after being on the bench for a while was good. I want to be on the court obviously more than I was last year, but it takes a lot to get there.

Q: How did you pick your number?

A: I picked this number because when I played basketball when I was little I was 35 and my dad has been 35 ever since he was younger playing softball. He said he was going to stop playing when he was 35, but he's 50 and he's still playing. I wanted to be like him when I was little so I just picked it.

Q: Do you have a nickname?

A: I don't know if you've ever seen the movie 'Fired Up' but there is a girl named Carly on there and the guy calls his girlfriend 'Carly Fries,' 'Carlito's Way' and 'Carly and the Chocolate Factory.' They all call me that.

Q: What is your favorite quote from Coach?

A: I remember in the beginning of the summer he said 'You can either finger paint or paint like Picasso.' He just meant that you can go big or go home pretty much. Put in the work now and it will pay off later.

Q: What is your favorite music to listen to?

A: I actually love everything but I hated country music before I came to the south. I did go to the CMAs in Nashville this summer and now I'm obsessed with country.

Q: Were you able to see that happen in your freshman season with hard work paying off?

A: From the club I played at, we were always in the gym all the time. I just knew that if you wanted to come close to winning or getting a championship, you have to sacrifice if you want it.

Q: What's an interesting fact that no one would know about you?

A: I like to fish with my dad. I caught this big sturgeon that almost looked like an alligator just the way it felt. It was big. We didn't have a camera. It was a disposable and it got wet so we couldn't take a picture. [I caught the fish] when I was 13.

INTERVIEW BY MATT MAGILL

Q: How was your summer?
A: It was great. I went to Nebraska to visit my family in May, and then I came back and took classes and worked out.

Q: What family did you have in Nebraska?
A: My grandparents and my aunts and uncles. I'm originally from Nebraska.

Q: But you're from Knoxville, right?
A: I'll say I'm from Knoxville. I lived in Nebraska until my sophomore year in high school.

Q: What made you move to Knoxville?
A: My dad got a job with First Tennessee Bank.

Q: Being from Knoxville, was UT always your first choice?
A: I never really thought about it, I guess. I didn't know when I moved here that I wanted to go to UT or anything. It was just a great opportunity for me. My family can come watch every match. It's nice to be close to home. That was definitely one of the decision points on why I chose Tennessee.

Q: Did you know you were Coach Patrick's first player from Knoxville?
A: Yeah, someone told me that. I found that out. It's cool because volleyball is definitely growing in this area—especially since I got here from Nebraska. Coming from Nebraska, it's at a whole different level out there. More people play volleyball out there. It's nice to see a lot of younger kids playing volleyball now in Knoxville. It feels good to be the first from Knoxville.

Q: Was volleyball more competitive in Nebraska?
A: Yeah, it is. It started when I was in fourth grade. I know some people may start younger, but it's just at a higher level in Nebraska, I guess.

Q: Did you play any other sports during high school?
A: I played basketball until my junior year. The only reason I didn't play my senior season was because I graduated early to come here.

Q: Were you any good?
A: Yeah, I was. I played basketball a lot longer than volleyball. I had played since I could walk. My dad and uncle played basketball, too.

Q: Could you have gone to play basketball somewhere?
A: Probably, but not Division I. Maybe a smaller school. I never did any AAU or club basketball or anything. I didn't get as much exposure as I did in volleyball.

Q: If Coach Summitt needed you, could you be ready to suit up and play?
A: I don't know. (laughs) I mean I still have my shot down, but that's a whole other level. It would be fun just to sit on the bench.

Q: Do you have any other off-the-court interests?
A: I love doing video production stuff. That's what I'm going to major in: visual communications. I love working with computers and stuff, which is kind of nerdy, but I enjoy it. I like putting stuff together and making it with sounds and music and stuff.

I like to shop and go out on the lake. I don't really like to tube because it scares me, so I stay on the boat.

INTERVIEW BY JOSH PATE

Q: When I say the word 'expectation,' what comes to mind for you as a freshman?
A: Not too much. Even Coach Patrick told me not to come in here carrying the weight of the world on my shoulders. He said to just come in here, learn the system, get to passing better, and develop what I need to work on like passing and the rotation outside.

Q: Was there an 'aha moment' when you realized that volleyball was something you wanted to continue in your life?
A: Oh yeah, there definitely was. My sophomore year, I had to choose between basketball and volleyball. Basketball was my thing. I had played since I was in fourth grade. So I had to choose, and I chose volleyball. I've been with it since then and I want to become the best player that I can.

Q: What is it about volleyball that makes your choice satisfying?
A: I think it's the ultimate team sport. Without your teammates, you can't accomplish anything. You have to rely on every single person on the team. That was a huge thing for me. In basketball, one person can take control of the game.

Q: On a typical game day, do you have a routine or preparation before walking onto the court?
A: At first, it's me getting focused. I want to be by myself. But then, right before the game starts, I'll get into music and get hyped up. It really solves the jitters.

Q: Some players are superstitious in their sport. Have you ever been superstitious?
A: No, not really. My high school coach was like that. She would tell me, 'Don't wear that jersey; you played bad in it last time.' I wouldn't care. I'm not really superstitious about anything.

Q: What did you do over the summer between high school and your freshman year?
A: I graduated high school early, so I had six months to prepare for coming here. I did the workout they sent me twice. I finished the workout and conditioning, and I was playing club volleyball. I also had a job. So basically, that was my life: conditioning, volleyball, job. It was nice though because I got focused and ready to come here.

Q: You worked all summer. So on your perfect vacation, you're in a plane and it lands. You step off. Where are you at?
A: Anywhere that's tropical or exotic. I've never been to Hawaii, so something like that. Maybe Miami. I've been to Miami before, though. Maybe Puerto Rico. Somewhere with exotic, tropical trees.

INTERVIEW BY MATT MAGILL

Q: How was your summer?
A: It went pretty well. I came early with the rest of the older team to train with them instead of staying home.

Q: How did training with the team go?
A: Training was really good. We trained with (strength coach) Holly (Frantz) everyday. There was a lot of weightlifting—probably the heaviest we'll lift all year. We did open gyms just with our own team at least three times a week. It was fun, but we got a lot better together.

Q: How did you feel like you improved during training?
A: I got a lot stronger, and I'm in better shape. My serve got better, especially my consistency. I feel like I got a lot better volleyball-wise.

Q: Why did you choose UT?
A: I chose UT because I wanted to be part of a program that I thought we could make winners. We haven't won a championship yet, but I'm confident that we can. Also because I like to try new things, so I knew that I wanted to go to a different part of the country to try it out. I loved the team when I came to visit, and I like the coaches, too. The environment here—I like having a big school and everything.

Q: Have there been any changes from California to Tennessee?
A: The culture is different here. It's the simplest things. People dress differently and talk differently. It's a different way of life I guess. It's good though; I like it here.

Q: Have you had to make any adjustments?
A: Not really. I haven't really changed at all. I guess I had to adjust to being away from home, but everyone has to adjust to that. I've had to adjust to being so far away from all my friends, too.

Q: Have you had any mix-ups in terminology? Has anyone said anything that you thought was odd?
A: The main differences are: people say car wreck. I'm just like, "it's a car crash." You didn't get in a wreck. And the other is I say highway and people here say interstate. Oh, and people here say "ya'll."

Q: Does "ya'll" annoy you?
A: A little bit. But I see myself changing a little. I will say "you all" now. I know I'm getting there but I still refuse to say "ya'll."

INTERVIEW BY MATT MAGILL

Q: How was your summer? Did you do anything special?
A: It was good. I took some summer classes and my club season finish out a couple of weeks before school started.

Q: How did your club team do?
A: We actually ended up winning nationals.

Q: Are there any other college players on the team?
A: A couple of my teammates play or will play. One of my teammates is going to Mississippi State and one is going to Ole Miss. Those are the two SEC ones. Pretty much everyone is going to different schools, but those are the two that are going to the SEC other than me.

Q: Why did you come to UT?
A: I really liked the atmosphere of the school. It's a cool environment and I really love everyone on the team. I like the coaching staff and the direction the program is headed.

Q: What can you expect from the team this year?
A: Everything we work for right now is trying to get to the Final Four. That's our goal right now, and I definitely think we can make it there. That would be really cool.

Q: What does it take to make a Final Four?
A: Our team chemistry is really good, and I think that will help us a lot. Fundamentally, I know I'll have to change a little bit of my skills just because it's different in high school than college. We're on the right track right now.

Q: What off-the-court interests do you have?
A: I really like just hanging out with my friends. We usually just go to movies. I really like photography. I like to watch baseball, too.

Q: Do you have a favorite baseball team?
A: Chicago Cubs.

INTERVIEW BY MEGAN SPEDDEN

Q: What brought you all the way to Tennessee from Denver, Colorado?
A: I loved the team and the coaches. And I loved the school all together.

Q: How did you choose your number?
A: I was usually number nine but then nine was taken so I just switched randomly. It's a new number for me.

Q: How has the adjustment to college been so far?
A: I have been here since June 30 and it has been good. Everybody has been welcoming and it has been easy.

Q: Do you know what you want to study yet?
A: I am going to go into dentistry, so I think biology.

Q: What aspirations do you have for yourself on the court?
A: A lot – we want to go far, obviously.

Q: Who is the biggest comedian or jokester on your team?
A: Probably Kelsey Robinson -- she is just always joking around and always has that smile on her face.

Q: What's a random fact that most people don't know about you?
A: My parents both come from big families and I am really close with all my cousins. My dad's whole side is in Colorado so I see them all the time. A lot of them are coming out for our tournament at the end of August.

Q: What is your favorite quote from Coach?
A: 'Dominate the net' he always says.

INTERVIEW BY MATT MAGILL

Q: How was your summer?
A: It was good, but it was really short though. Summer at University of Washington goes really late, so I only had two and a half weeks.

Q: Just two and a half weeks? What did you do with that little time?
A: I stayed with my family mainly. I didn't really do much.

Q: You're from Washington. Washington to Knoxville is a long trip. How much of your summer was spent travelling?
A: I looked up online on maps and it takes a day and 17 hours if you drove. But we flew.

Q: That's a long drive.
A: We didn't drive, but that would take forever.

Q: If you didn't fly, you would spend your entire vacation travelling.
A: Luckily, we flew, but I did spend a lot of time packing and getting ready to pack. (laughs) And I brought way too much. I already know that.

Q: Why did you pick UT being from Washington?
A: It was mainly recruiting stuff. When I got my release, they recruited me. When I came on my visit, I liked it a lot, so I decided to come here.

Q: What specifically was attractive about UT?
A: I really liked the team and Coach Patrick's coaching style. It's like a family atmosphere here. There was a lot of meshing with all the girls. I just liked everything about it. The campus is really pretty and the facilities are great.

Q: Where exactly are you from in Washington?
A: I'm from like twenty minutes east of Seattle.

Q: Is there anything unique about your hometown?
A: We have a nice shopping mall (laughs). We're less than an hour away from some good skiing mountains and just a few hours away from Canada. There's a lot of hiking and big mountains around.

Q: Do you ever just take a day trip to Canada?
A: Yeah, we'll go up there for a weekend and hike and ride horses. I've gone skiing a few times up there.

Q: What are some of your other off-the-court interests?
A: I like to go hiking with my parents.

INTERVIEW BY JOHN PAINTER

Q: What made you choose Tennessee?

A: This process started literally in the middle of July. They saw me play this summer at a tournament in Orlando, Fla. I was playing club volleyball and planning to go to a Division III school, and I got this offer and jumped on it.

Q: Talk about that whirlwind change to your college plans.

A: I really still can't even believe I've already graduated from high school. I'm like, 'I'm in college now?' It seems like I was just a freshman in high school, and I'm a freshman in college. It's a big change for me.

Q: What was your family's reaction to you going away to college?

A: My mom is very excited, probably happier than me because I got a scholarship.

Q: Did you play any other sports in high school?

A: Basketball and track, but volleyball always was my favorite.

Q: What's a Philadelphia secret people in Tennessee don't know about?

A: It's a very busy place; there's always something to do. Obviously, good cheesesteaks – that's what's important about Philly. There's a cheesesteak place right around the corner from my house called Leo's, and that's my spot.

Q: Have there been any early surprises about UT?

A: The campus isn't as big as I thought it would be, but that's good. People are really nice here.

Q: What are the strengths to your game?

A: I can jump. All I have is my vertical. I'm athletic, and that's my strength.

Q: What are your initial impressions of the team?

A: I didn't know any of the players before I got here, but so far it's been going OK for me. I thought it would be completely over my head, but it's been OK for me so far.

Q: What are you planning to study?

A: Nursing.

2010

REVIEW

25-7 — Overall Record /// Lady Vols' 3rd consecutive winning season

15-5 — SEC Record /// Lady Vols finished 2nd in the East

6 — Trips to the NCAA tournament in the last decade, including 2010

A LOOK AT THE RECORD

The Big Orange finished the season with a 25-7 overall record, tallying the program's most wins since it went 32-3 in 2004. The Lady Vols entered the 2010 NCAA Tournament as the No. 11 national seed, the highest in school history topping the only two previous seeds of No. 12 in 2004 and No. 15 in 2005.

JUST THE STATS

The Tennessee offense was the best in school history, posting a .291 attack average to break the previous record of .286 set in 1980. That hitting percentage ranked seventh among all 328 NCAA Division I schools, while UT's assists per set (13.55) and kills per set (14.54) averages both stood as the eighth-best in the country.

IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

Tennessee finished the 2010 season with a top-25 ranking for the second straight year and sixth time in program history. Prior to 2009, the Orange and White last did so in 2005 when it finished sixth after a run to the NCAA Final Four. It also finished 10th in 2004 and 14th in both 1982 and 1983.

The Lady Volunteers have now been ranked for 18 consecutive weeks dating back to 2009, which stands just one week off the school record of 19 set from 1982-84. They were ranked in all 16 polls this year, marking just the second time in program history and first time since 1983 that they have been rated as a top-25 squad for an entire season.

POSTSEASON AWARDS

Individually, the postseason accolades were plentiful in 2010, led by a trio of AVCA All-Americans. Senior Nikki Fowler was the team's most decorated player, claiming AVCA Third-Team All-America accolades to go along with being named the 2010 SEC Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year, an ESPN/CoSIDA Academic All-American and an All-SEC First Team selection for the third straight year.

Earning AVCA Honorable Mention All-American status were junior Kayla Jeter and senior Leah Hinkey. Jeter joined Fowler on the All-SEC First Team, while Hinkey was tabbed to the league's second team. Junior Amanda Friday, meanwhile, was named to the SEC Community Service Team. First-year Lady Vol Kelsey Robinson was chosen as a member of the conference's all-freshman squad.

FOR THE SWEEP

Tennessee made a habit of making quick work of its opponents in 2010, recording a total of 18 sweeps which marked the most by any SEC team.

Twice the Lady Vols went on extended runs without dropping a frame. They first opened the season with 20 straight set victories, finishing just one off the school record. UT also won 16 consecutive stanzas and 19-of-20 from Oct. 24-Nov. 12.

DIG FOR THE CURE

For the third-consecutive year, the Tennessee volleyball program partnered with the Knoxville affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure to host a "Dig for the Cure" event. On Oct. 29, the Lady Volunteers helped raise over $1,300 for awareness in the fight against breast cancer.

ONE OF THE BEST

A three-time American Volleyball Coaches Association All-American and All-SEC First Team selection on the court, Nikki Fowler completed her collegiate career as the most decorated volleyball player in Lady Vol history. Her name can be found all over the Tennessee record book as she finished her time as a Lady Vol ranked in the top 10 in seven career categories. A native of Dallas, Texas, she stands first all-time in total attacks (4,426), third in attacks per set (9.54), fourth in kills (1,649), sixth in kills per set (3.55), sixth in digs (1,281), seventh in digs per set (2.76) and eighth in blocks (344).

Over the course of her four-year career at Rocky Top, Fowler notched a double-double in 41.9 percent of her collegiate contests, accomplishing the feat 52 times in 124 career matches. In 2010, she led the Lady Vols with 393 kills (3.51/set) and 938 attacks (8.38/set), ranked second with 324 digs (2.89/set), third with a career-best .306 hitting percentage and fifth with 61 blocks (0.54/set).

CRADLE OF COACHES

University of Tennessee volleyball coach Rob Patrick was one of six esteemed individuals inducted into Miami University's Cradle of Coaches Association in 2010. He joined the prestigious group on Sat., Feb. 26, along with Jerry Angelo, Elaine Hieber, Dave Jennings, Gary Quisno and Pam Wettig.

A 1983 graduate of Miami where he was a member of the football team and president of the club volleyball program, Patrick joined a list of legendary coaches such as Paul Brown, Ara Parseghian, Woody Hayes and Bo Schembechler.

KEEPING IT LOCAL

For the first time since 1981, the Lady Vol roster featured four players from the state of Tennessee. The short list included: DeeDee Harrison (Nashville), Ellen Mullins (Nashville), Jasmine Brown (Chattanooga) and Kylann Scheidt (Knoxville).

FACT BOX /// THOMPSON-BOLING ARENA ATTENDANCE

With an average home attendance of 983 in 2010, the Lady Vols demolished the previous school record of 772 set the year before. UT also finished with a program record for total home attendance as 13,761 fans passed through the turnstiles at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Since beginning play in Thompson-Boling Arena full time in 2008, Tennessee has created a tradition of home-court dominance, putting together a 36-7 record in the facility. That mark includes an impressive 12-2 record in 2010.

LADY VOLS

HISTORY

ONE OF THE BEST

Nikki Fowler finished her career as the most decorated volleyball player to compete at Tennessee. After earning third-team All-America status as a senior in 2010, she became one of just five Lady Vols to ever be named on the first, second or third AVCA All-America teams.

TENNESSEE CAREER RECORDS

[Records since 1980]

Chloe Goldman (2006-09) finished her career as both Tennessee's career leader in digs (1,755) and digs per set (4.37). She earned AVCA honorable mention All-America honors as a senior in 2009.

Lady Vols on the NATIONAL STAGE

Tennessee has appeared in the national postseason 13 times, including 7 trips in 14 years under head coach Rob Patrick, who led the team all the way to the NCAA semifinals in 2005

Tennessee has appeared in national championship play in each of the last four decades dating back to 1973, when Kaye Hart's Lady Vol squad posted a 38-6 mark for the season and ended up reaching what was then the AIAW national championship tournament, finishing 15th in the nation.

In the NCAA Championships

1981: Tennessee returned to the national scene for the first of four consecutive appearances in the NCAA Championships. Bob Bertucci's team finished the season at 34-22 after a three-game loss to Purdue.

1982: UT went 31-7 and registered its first-ever victory at the NCAAs, downing Northwestern in a five-set match. The Lady Vols then returned to West Lafayette for Mideast Regional and were ousted by eventual NCAA runner-up Southern Cal.

1983: Tennessee posted its third consecutive 30-win season with an overall record of 31-10. The Lady Vols traveled to Tallahassee, Fla., for their first-round match against Florida State, dropped the first two games, and still emerged with a five-game victory. UT journeyed to Austin, Texas, for the regional where eventual national champion Hawaii eliminated the Lady Vols in three games.

1984: The final season of Tennessee's four-year NCAA run featured a 25-11 record and another first-round win. The Lady Vols hosted Eastern Kentucky and won in three straight games before traveling to Austin for the second year in a row. Texas pinned a four-game loss on the Lady Vols.

1993: Nine years later, Julie Hermann became the third coach to lead the Lady Vols to a national tournament. She brought Tennessee back to the NCAAs as her squad concluded the season with an overall record of 18-13. The field had been expanded from 32 to 48 teams, and UT hosted first-round action against Sam Houston State, posting a four-game victory. The Lady Vols then lost in four games to Georgia in Athens, Ga.

Head Coach Rob Patrick guided his squad to the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA National Semifinals in 2005. The team finished the season with a 25-9 record.

2000: From his experience as a part of two national championship teams at Stanford, head coach Rob Patrick used his postseason know-how to navigate the squad to the Lady Vols' first NCAA appearance in seven years. Patrick's troops ventured to University Park, Pa., for a first-round match with the Washington State Cougars and dropped a three-game match to WSU.

2004: In 2004, the Lady Vols stormed their way into the NCAA tournament with a 30-2 record, before winning two tournament matches for the first time in UT volleyball history. Stokely Athletics Center welcomed in Eastern Kentucky, Texas A&M and Winthrop for its initial hosting of NCAA play. The Lady Vols swept EKU and topped the Aggies in four sets to move on to the regional semifinals and a date with Ohio State. After the Orange and White claimed the first two frames, the Buckeyes outscored UT the next three, including tight 30-26 and 15-12 results in the final two sets to put one of Tennessee's best seasons in school history to an end.

2005: Having learned from their experiences the previous season, the Lady Vols were determined to go further than ever before. They hosted Jacksonville State, Winthrop and 2004 national finalist Minnesota at the Stokely Athletics Center. After making quick work of the Gamecocks, Patrick's squad found itself down late in the fourth set against the Golden Gophers but staged a stunning comeback to claim the five-set victory and advance to the next round to face Penn State.

Once in Happy Valley, the Lady Vols continued their winning ways, ending the seasons of both the Nittany Lions and Missouri Tigers.

The pair of victories clinched a visit to San Antonio, Texas, for the NCAA semifinals, where the team faced Washington. The miraculous run came to an end as the eventual national champion Huskies proved too formidable a foe, taking Tennessee down in three sets.

2006: Patrick once again guided the Lady Vols to the NCAA tournament in 2006, marking the third straight campaign in which UT reached the postseason. With a youthful squad, featuring seven freshmen and four sophomores, the Lady Vols gained valuable experience but were unable to overcome a tough Duke squad, falling in four games at Stokely Athletics Center. The Orange and White concluded the season with a respectable 19-12 overall record.

2008: Following a down year in 2007, Patrick led the Lady Vols back to the postseason in 2008 after the team finished with a 15-5 record in SEC play and won 12 of its last 13 regular-season matches. UT didn't have to travel far, venturing to Clemson, S.C., for the opening round of the NCAA tournament where it dropped a heartbreaking, five-set decision at the hands of the host Tigers to finish the year with a 22-10 record.

2009: The NCAA tournament returned to Knoxville once again in 2009, with Thompson-Boling Arena playing host for the first time. UT, which won a school-record 16 SEC matches during the regular season, defeated Duke in the opening round before falling to No. 11 Minnesota the following day. The Lady Vols finished with their seventh 20-plus win campaign under Patrick with an overall record of 24-8.

2010: The Lady Vols were back in the NCAA field for the third consecutive season, going on the road to Bloomington, Ill., for the opening rounds. They beat Alabama A&M easily in three lopsided games before losing to host Indiana in five games, dropping the final frame 15-13.

Lady Vols Snap Florida's Streak to Earn Share of SEC Title (& Win the SEC Tournament a Week Later)

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- The 15th-ranked University of Tennessee volleyball squad saw its first five-game match of the season end with joy as the Lady Vols topped No. 7 Florida, 30-21, 23-30, 25-30, 31-29, 15-12, to earn a share of their first SEC regular-season championship in school history.

In the process, the Lady Vols made history by ending three astounding SEC winning streaks that Florida brought into the match: a 145-match regular season winning streak (an NCAA record), a 121-match overall (including SEC Tournaments) winning streak (also an NCAA record) and a 109-match home winning streak.

The last time Florida lost at home in the SEC was on Sept. 30, 1990, by a 15-7, 15-9, 15-11 score to LSU.

The Lady Vols earned its third win ever against a top-10 team and the first one since 1983 when Tennesseee topped No. 9 Arizona State, 3-1.

"I couldn't be happier for this group of young ladies," Head Coach Rob Patrick said. "We talked last January about what it would take to win the SEC and I told them that we would have to put more time in the gym and get stronger, starting in January. This is one of the most focused teams that I've ever been a part of. It's just neat to see that all the hard work ends up accounting for something.

"We've had a couple people, Michelle (Piantadosi) and Whitney (Gifford), who have been here for four years, who came here to be in NCAA Tournaments and play for SEC Championships, and look who got it done today: Whitney and Michelle.

Game five went back-and-forth as neither team could muster a two-point lead until Florida took an 8-6 advantage. After UF had a 9-7 lead, Tennessee then went on a 6-0 run for a 13-9 lead and put away the Gators, 15-12. The winning point came off a kill from freshman outside hitter Yuliya Stoyanova.

Senior outside hitter Michelle Piantadosi recorded a career high 26 kills, while hitting .393 (26-4-56). Junior outside hitter Amy Morris had 16 kills, Stoyanova tallied 14 and junior middle blocker Kristen Andre recorded 13.

Junior setter Julie Knytych recorded 68 assists to tie her career high, previously occurring against Ole Miss on Sept. 26, 2003, by a 3-1 score.

Defensive leaders included sophomore middle blocker Sarah Blum with nine blocks, Stoyanova with six and Andre with five. Dig leaders were Morris with 31, the fourth-highest total in UT history and a personal record. Sophomore libero Annie Sadowski had 20 digs, Knytych contributed 15, junior defensive specialist Jasmine Fullove contributed 11 and sophomore defensive specialist Cynthia Buggs tallied 11.
